Press pause and discuss the questions halfway through, give a few minutes for the discussion, then carry on watching it until the end.

Discussion

- 🗨️ In what ways can the bible help you with life and with difficult situations?
- 🗨️ In what ways did the bible help Hea-Woo when she was in the camp?
- 🗨️ How has the bible helped you in difficult times? Have you got a verse to share?
- 🗨️ Do the Discipleship Question. Go round and share:
 - What has God said to you as you read the bible this week, and what are you going to do about it?

Bible Bit...

Read Matthew 4:1-11

In groups:

Read it (what does it say) - anything that pops out or interests you?

Reflect (What does it mean, then and for you now)

Respond (What do I do now)

Extra questions:

- 🗨️ What does it mean that "you do not live on bread alone, but on every word that comes from God?"
- 🗨️ Jesus had memorised the scripture, so could bring it to mind when he needed it. What verses can you memories? Try Now!

Jesus got tempted and used the bible to protect himself - if he needs to how much more do we!

Read Psalm 119: 9-11

- 🗨️ How can a young person live right according to this? How can you do this?

CHALLENGE: How can you memorise some of the bible this week?

Pray Spend some time at the end of the session praying.

Reading the bible is a battle, pray you can do it this week and get something out of it.
